NEWSLETTER
APRIL 2008

Liberty Letters® . . . Join the Adventure!™

*I heard the droning of airplane engines. An explosion ripped through the air. Then another.
I raced outside. I saw the blazing fires and smoke. I realized this was no practice drill.
Attack Day was here.*

COMING SOON! We are pleased to announce that all new editions of the original Liberty Letters® book series are set for release by Zondervan in August 2008. Each book has been rewritten, updated with captivating new cover art by acclaimed illustrator Guy Porfirio, and retitled.

Primarily for girls 10 and up, the active history - based Liberty Letters® series introduces fictional characters whose courage, ingenuity, and faith shaped events in U.S. history. Through the power of friendship, each story reveals how God works through ordinary teens in extraordinary times.

Full of suspense, the action-packed stories capture the imagination and inspire the heart with acts of undaunted courage by teenagers whose choices in the perilous times in which they live could forever alter history.

Here is a sneak peak of what's to come!

Attack at Pearl Harbor

THE ASPIRATIONS OF TWO YOUNG WOMEN PROPEL THEM INTO THE PATH OF A FATEFUL DAY

Standing on the airfield in Hawaii, watching a boy her age take his first solo flight, Meredith vows again to learn to fly. In Washington, D.C., her friend Catherine is equally determined to write real news stories for the school newspaper. As December 7, 1941 approaches, the girls have no idea that their faith and their dreams are about to carry them through one of the biggest events in the life of their nation.

SECRETS OF CIVIL WAR SPIES

THE WAR BETWEEN THE STATES THROWS TWO YOUNG WOMEN INTO A WORLD OF INTRIGUE

Disguised as a Yankee soldier and fighting with her regiment on Virginia battlefields, Emma goes undercover as a spy for the Union. In Richmond, her friend Molly discovers a spy ring against the Confederacy. While the war tears the nation apart, both girls must decide whether they will risk everything for what they believe.

Adventures in Jamestown

DARING YOUNG WOMEN—IN THE NEW WORLD AND THE OLD-- FIND MORE ADVENTURE THAN THEY BARGAINED FOR

After enduring a dangerous voyage to the New World, Abigail discovers her fight for survival in Jamestown has only begun. When she must face her enemy, an Indian princess called Pocahontas, Abigail uncovers the enemy of her own heart—unforgiveness. In London, England, her friend Elizabeth yearns for adventure, but society's conventions threaten to crush her dreams. As the girls face their deepest fears, they discover their choices can change a nation's---and a young woman's---destiny.

Escape on the Underground Railroad

THE EVILS OF SLAVERY COMPEL TWO YOUNG WOMEN TO MAKE A DANGEROUS CHOICE.

Hannah's world is shaken when she discovers her family's involvement with the Underground Railroad. When runaways find their way to her Virginia home, she must decide if she will play it safe, or join her family to help the slaves escape. In Philadelphia, her friend Sarah, is drawn into the life of a seven year orphan, whose world has been shattered by the evils of slavery. As the danger increases, the girls must find the courage they need to act before it is too late.

Stay tuned for more details ahead in upcoming newsletter editions.
